PREFACE

The first part of the Reference Index for V. I. Lenin's Collected Works in English contains two indexes: an alphabetical index of the works of Lenin and a name index.

The index of Lenin's works gives the volume and pages of the works included in the 45 volumes of the present edition. The title of the work or document is followed by the date of writing or first publication. Before adoption of the new style in Russia (February 14, 1918), the dates are given in new and old style. The dates of writing are given in bold face. Material relating to congresses of the R.S.D.L.P. and R.C.P.(B.), and the Soviets, conferences of the R.S.D.L.P., R.S.D.L.P.(B.), R.C.P.(B.), and the like, is listed in separate sections. The arrangement within the sections is chronological.

Lenin's correspondence is given under the heads "Notes", "Letters", "Telegrams", "Telephone Messages", etc. Documents addressed to individuals are given in the alphabetical order of the names of the addressees, and in chronological order for each addressee. Documents addressed to organisations are given in chronological order.

The name index contains the names, or aliases if these are better known than the names, of persons mentioned by Lenin in his works. In the case of nom de plumes, Party aliases, etc., the authentic name is given in brackets in bold face.
