

ZIMBABWE

ACT

To provide for the prevention of corruption and the investigation of claims arising from dishonesty or corruption; to repeal the Prevention of Corruption Act [Chapter 70] and certain other enactments; and to provide for matters connected with or incidental to the foregoing.

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Section

1. Short title.
2. Interpretation.

PART II

PREVENTION OF CORRUPTION

3. Corrupt practices.
4. Offences by public officers.
5. Competent verdict.

PART III

INVESTIGATION OF CLAIMS ARISING FROM DISHONESTY OR CORRUPTION*Section*

6. Power of Minister to specify persons.
7. Appointment of investigators.
8. Functions of investigators.
9. Examination of persons by investigators.
10. Transactions by specified persons.
11. Prohibition against disclosure of investigators' reports.
12. Appeals.
13. Offences relating to investigations.

PART IV

GENERAL

14. Prevention of victimization.
 15. Presumptions and evidence.
 16. Indemnity.
 17. Effect of Act on other laws.
 18. Regulations.
 19. Repeals and savings.
- SCHEDULE: Repealed Enactments.

ENACTED by the President and the Parliament of Zimbabwe.

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1985.

Interpretation.

2. In this Act—

“agent” means a person employed by or acting for another in any capacity whatsoever, and includes—

- (a) the trustee of an insolvent estate;
- (b) the assignee of an estate that has been assigned for the benefit or with the consent of creditors;
- (c) the liquidator of a company or other body corporate that is being wound up or dissolved;
- (d) the executor of the estate of a deceased person;
- (e) the legal representative of a person who is a minor or of unsound mind or who is otherwise under legal disability;
- (f) a public officer;
- (g) a member of a board, committee or other authority which is responsible for administering the affairs or business of a body corporate or association other than a statutory body or local authority;

“consideration” means any right, interest, profit, indemnity or benefit or other valuable consideration of any kind;

“investigator” means—

- (a) a person appointed as investigator in terms of section seven; or
- (b) an employee, assistant or other person authorized by an investigator in terms of subsection (3) of section eight;

“local authority” means a municipality, town, local board, provincial council, rural council or district council or any similar body established by or in terms of any enactment;

“Minister” means the Minister of Justice, Legal and Parliamentary Affairs or any other Minister to whom the President may from time to time assign the administration of this Act;

“principal” means the employer or other person for whom an agent acts and, in relation to—

- (a) a trustee, assignee, liquidator, executor or legal representative referred to in the definition of “agent”, includes all persons represented by the trustee, assignee, liquidator, executor or legal representative, as the case may be, or in relation to whom he stands in a position of trust;
- (b) a public officer who is a Minister and a member of the Cabinet, includes both the State and the Cabinet;
- (c) a member of a council, board, committee or authority which is a statutory body or local authority or which is responsible for administering the affairs of a statutory body, local authority, body corporate or association, includes both such council, board, committee or authority and the statutory body, local authority, body corporate or association for whose affairs it is responsible;

“property” means property of any description whatsoever, including money;

“public officer” means—

- (a) a Minister or Deputy Minister; or
- (b) a governor appointed in terms of an Act referred to in section 111A of the Constitution; or
- (c) a member of a council, board, committee or other authority which is a statutory body or local authority or which is responsible for administering the affairs or business of a statutory body or local authority; or
- (d) a person holding or acting in a paid office in the service of the State, a statutory body or a local authority;

“record” includes any device or medium whereon or wherein information is recorded;

“specified person” means any person specified in a notice published by the Minister in terms of section six;

“statutory body” means—

- (a) any Commission established by the Constitution; or
- (b) any body corporate established directly by or under any Act for special purposes specified in that Act, the membership of which consists wholly or mainly of persons appointed by the President or by a Minister.

Corrupt practices.

3. (1) If—

- (a) any agent corruptly solicits or accepts or obtains, or agrees to accept or attempts to obtain, from any person a gift or consideration for himself or any other person as an inducement or reward—

- (i) for doing or not doing, or for having done or not done, any act in relation to his principal's affairs or business; or

- (ii) for showing or not showing, or for having shown for not shown, favour or disfavour to any person or thing in relation to his principal's affairs or business;

or

- (b) any person corruptly gives or agrees to give or offers any gift or consideration to any agent for himself or any other person as an inducement or reward—

- (i) for doing or not doing, or for having done or not done, any act in relation to his principal's affairs or business; or

- (ii) for showing or not showing, or for having shown or not shown, favour or disfavour to any person or thing in relation to his principal's affairs or business;

or

- (c) any—

- (i) agent, with intent to deceive his principal, uses;

or

- (ii) person, with intent to deceive the agent's principal, gives to an agent;

any receipt, account or other record in respect of which the principal is interested and which contains a statement that is false or erroneous or defective in a material particular; or

- (d) any agent, by arrangement with the seller of goods or with any person engaging to render any services, secretly obtains any gift or consideration for himself or for any other person in connexion with his principal's affairs or business; or

- (e) any seller of goods, or any person offering his services, secretly offers any gift or consideration to an agent for himself or for any other person in regard to the sale of the goods or to the employment of his services in connexion with the affairs or business of the agent's principal; or

- (f) any agent, with intent to deceive his principal or to obtain any gift or consideration for himself or any other person, fails to disclose to his principal the full nature of any transaction carried out in connexion with his principal's affairs or business;

he shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who is guilty of an offence in terms of subsection (1) shall be liable—

- (a) to a fine not exceeding three times the value of the gift or consideration concerned or five thousand dollars, whichever is the greater; or

(b) to imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years; or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Where a court has convicted a person of an offence in terms of subsection (1) and does not exercise its powers in terms of section 57I of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 59] to declare any gift or consideration unlawfully obtained by the convicted person to be forfeited to the State, the court may, in addition to passing sentence, give summary judgment in favour of the convicted person's principal or former principal for an amount equal to the value of any such gift or consideration, together with any interest that may have accrued thereon.

(4) A judgment given in terms of subsection (3) shall have the same force and effect and may be executed in the same manner as if the judgment had been given in a civil action instituted in the court concerned:

Provided that, in the case of a judgment given by the court of a regional magistrate, a copy of the judgment certified by the clerk of such court shall be forwarded to the court of the provincial magistrate for the province in which the trial took place and thereupon shall be recorded and have the same effect as a civil judgment of the court of the provincial magistrate.

4. If a public officer, in the course of his employment as such— Offences by public officers.

- (a) does anything that is contrary to or inconsistent with his duty as a public officer; or
- (b) omits to do anything which it is his duty as a public officer to do; for the purpose of showing favour or disfavour to any person, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding three thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

5. A public officer charged with an offence in terms of section three may found guilty of a contravention of section four, if such are the facts proved. Competent verdict.

PART III

INVESTIGATION OF CLAIMS ARISING FROM DISHONESTY OR CORRUPTION

Power of Minister to specify persons.

6. (1) Where the Minister, on reasonable grounds, suspects that any person—
- (a) by theft, fraud or other unlawful means, has caused the misappropriation or loss of property of the State, a statutory body, a local authority or any other person; or
 - (b) has received property from the State, a statutory body, a local authority or any other person, whether directly or indirectly, in contravention of any law or as a result, either direct or indirect, of the action of any person who has caused misappropriation or loss such as is referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (c) has accepted or obtained a gift or consideration in contravention of section three; or
 - (d) has obtained any advantage or profit corruptly or in circumstances that amount to an offence in terms of this Act; or
 - (e) is associated with, or has been party to any transaction whatsoever with, any other person who has done anything referred to in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) and, as a result of such association or transaction, may be liable to the State, a statutory body, a local authority or any other person for any claim or proceeding in respect of any property or be liable to have the transaction set aside;

and is satisfied that it is in the national interest to do so, he may, by notice in the Gazette, declare such person to be a specified person.

(2) The Minister may at any time, by notice in the Gazette, amend or revoke any declaration made in terms of subsection (1), and shall revoke any such declaration within fourteen days after receiving a final report from the investigator in terms of paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section eight, unless he considers on reasonable grounds that there are further matters for the investigator to investigate and determine

Appointment of
investigators.

7. (1) The Minister may appoint any member of the Public Service or any other suitable person to be an investigator for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Where the Minister has, in terms of section six, declared any person to be a specified person, he shall, without delay, assign one or more investigators to that specified person.

(3) The Minister shall furnish every investigator with a letter of appointment and the investigator shall, on request, display his letter of appointment to any interested person.

(4) An investigator who is not a member of the Public Service shall be paid out of moneys appropriated for the purpose by Parliament such remuneration and allowances as the Minister may fix with the approval of the Minister responsible for finance.

8. (1) The functions of an investigator shall be— Functions of investigators.
- (a) to investigate the affairs and business of the specified person to whom he has been assigned and determine—
 - (i) whether or not the specified person has been involved in any conduct referred to in paragraphs (a) to (e) of subsection (1) of section six and, if he has, whether or not the State or a statutory body, local authority or other person has a claim against him as a result of or arising out of such conduct; and
 - (ii) the extent and nature of any claim referred to in subparagraph (i); and
 - (iii) the most expeditious or advantageous method of enforcing or preserving any claim referred to in subparagraph (i);
 and
 - (b) to report to the Minister on the result of his investigation; and
 - (c) to exercise any other function conferred upon him by or in terms of this Act.
- (2) In the exercise of his functions, an investigator shall have power—
- (a) to call for the production of, and examine, take extracts from and, for the duration of his investigation, take possession of any books or records belonging to or in the custody of the specified person concerned or any other person employed by or in any way associated with the specified person;
 - (b) to examine any property of the specified person concerned;
 - (c) in addition to his powers in terms of section nine, to question the specified person concerned or any other person employed by or in any way associated with the specified person;
 - (d) to enter and search any premises—
 - (i) belonging to or controlled by the specified person concerned; or
 - (ii) wherein or whereon he has reason to believe there may be evidence as to any transaction carried out by or on behalf of the specified person concerned:
 Provided that an investigator shall not enter or search any premises in terms of this paragraph without the consent of the occupier unless there are reasonable grounds for believing that the entry is necessary for the prevention, investigation or detection of an offence.
- (3) An investigator appointed in terms of section seven may exercise his functions in terms of this Act through any employee, assistant or other person authorized by him.

Examination of persons by investigators.

9. (1) If at any time an investigator considers it necessary or desirable to do so, he may summon—

- (a) the specified person to whom he has been assigned; or
- (b) any other person, including the spouse of the specified person, who, in the opinion of the investigator—
 - (i) may be able to give material information concerning the affairs or property of the specified person or concerning any transaction carried out by him or on his behalf; or
 - (ii) has in his possession or custody any book, document or record containing any information referred to in subparagraph (i);

to appear before the investigator for examination at a place, time and date specified in the summons and, where appropriate, to bring with him any book, document or record specified in the summons.

(2) A summons in terms of subsection (1) shall be in writing and may be served upon the person to whom it is addressed by the investigator or a police officer or by any person authorized by the investigator.

(3) An investigator may administer an oath to any person summoned in terms of subsection (1) and may—

- (a) interrogate that person concerning all matters relating to the affairs or business or property of the specified person or concerning any transaction carried out by or on behalf of the specified person; and
- (b) require that person to produce to the investigator any book, document or record he was required in the summons to bring with him.

(4) Subject to this section, the law applicable to the privilege of a witness summoned to give evidence or to produce any book, document or record in a court of law shall apply to any person examined or required to produce any book, document or record in terms of this section.

(5) No person examined or required to produce any book, document or record in terms of this section shall be entitled to refuse to answer any question or to produce the book, document or record concerned, on the ground that—

- (a) to answer the question or produce the book, document or record, as the case may be—
 - (i) might or would tend to incriminate him; or
 - (ii) would disclose a communication from the spouse of the person made during their marriage;

or

- (b) the spouse of the person would be entitled to refuse to answer the question or to produce the book, document or record, as the case may be.

(6) A banker, if required to do so in terms of this section, shall be obliged—

(a) to produce any cheque, document, book or record in his possession; and

(b) to answer any question;

relating to any account kept at his bank by a specified person or his spouse or by any person who is or was in any way associated with or a party to any transaction with the specified person or his spouse.

(7) Any person summoned in terms of this section may be assisted at the proceedings by his legal practitioner.

(8) No person shall be present at proceedings in terms of this section, other than—

(a) the investigator; and

(b) any person giving or producing evidence; and

(c) legal practitioners advising the investigator or representing the specified person concerned or any person giving or producing evidence; and

(d) any other person whose presence the investigator considers to be necessary for the proper and efficient conduct of the proceedings.

(9) If a person who may be summoned in terms of this section made a statement which was reduced to writing, the written statement may be read by or read over to that person after he has been sworn in terms of this section and, if he then adheres to it, it shall be deemed to be evidence given by him in terms of this section and shall form part of the record kept in terms of subsection (11).

(10) The investigator may adjourn any proceedings held in terms of this section to a date, time and place specified by him and may require any person present or in attendance at such proceedings to appear at the adjourned proceedings and to bring with him any book, document or record which the investigator may specify and which, in the opinion of the investigator, contains information concerning the affairs or business or property of the specified person or concerning any transaction carried out by or on behalf of the specified person.

(11) The investigator shall keep a record of proceedings held in terms of this section, or cause a record of them to be kept, in the manner provided for the recording of criminal proceedings before a magistrates court.

(12) Subject to section eleven, the law relating to—

(a) the publication of criminal proceedings held in camera before a magistrates court; and

(b) access to the record of such proceedings; shall apply, mutatis mutandis, in respect of proceedings held in terms of this section and the record thereof, as if the specified person were an accused person and the investigator were a magistrate.

- (13) A document purporting—
- (a) to be a record of proceedings held in terms of this section; and
 - (b) to have been certified as correct by the investigator who conducted the proceedings;

shall be admissible in evidence before any court on its production by any person as prima facie proof of what was said and done in the course of the proceedings in question.

(14) It shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that any proceedings at which was kept a record referred to in subsection (13) were duly held and that all acts performed in the course of those proceedings were validly performed.

Transactions by specified persons.

10. (1) Subject to this section, a specified person shall not—
- (a) expend or in any way dispose of any property; or
 - (b) enter into any contract for the disposal of any property; or
 - (c) operate any account with any bank, building society or financial institution; or
 - (d) increase his indebtedness or adversely affect his estate; or
 - (e) perform any act as a director of a company or as a partner in a partnership or in any manner conduct or manage the business or affairs of a company or partnership; or
 - (f) perform any act as an agent of a company or partnership that is also a specified person;

(2) No person shall do anything referred to in subsection (1) for or on behalf of a specified person, without the approval of the investigator assigned to the specified person or otherwise than in accordance with any conditions imposed by the investigator.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), an investigator may—

- (a) grant general approval for any specified class of transactions; and
- (b) impose conditions on any approval granted by him; and
- (c) revoke any approval granted by him or amend any condition subject to which it was granted:

Provided that such revocation or amendment shall not affect the validity of anything done prior thereto.

(4) Without derogation from the generality of subsection (3), an investigator may, for the purposes of subsection (1) or (2), grant approval for all transactions on condition that security is given by or on behalf of the specified person in such form and amount as the investigator considers will satisfy any claim against the specified person resulting from or arising out of any conduct referred to in subsection (1) of section six.

(5) An investigator shall grant approval in terms of subsection (1) or (2) for any transaction which he is satisfied forms part of the ordinary course of business of the specified person concerned.

(6) Subsections (1) and (2) shall not apply in respect of—

- (a) any transaction where the total value of any property or expenditure does not exceed ten dollars; or
- (b) anything done in pursuance of an order of any court.

(7) Any transaction carried out in contravention of subsection (1) or (2) shall be void, and, where any property has been transferred as a result of any such transaction, the investigator may, on behalf of the specified person, recover any such property by proceedings in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(8) Nothing in this section shall be construed as limiting in any way the right of any person to bring any proceedings in any court, including proceedings under the Companies Act [Chapter 190] or the Insolvency Act [Chapter 303], for the purposes of enforcing any claim he may have against a specified person.

(9) For the avoidance of doubt, it is declared that, save as provided in this Act, a specified person shall be entitled to carry on his ordinary course of business.

11. The Minister shall ensure that the report of an investigator is not disclosed, without the consent of the specified person concerned, to any person except persons who are concerned in—

Prohibition against disclosure of investigators' reports.

- (a) the investigation or prosecution of any offence; or
- (b) the recovery of any debt; or
- (c) the institution or carrying on of any civil proceedings;

which arise out of or relate to any fact or matter dealt with in the report.

12. Any person who is aggrieved by—

Appeals.

- (a) the declaration of any person as a specified person; or
- (b) any decision or action of an investigator;

may appeal to the Minister, who may confirm the declaration, decision or action concerned, or take such other action in the matter as he thinks fit.

13. (1) Any person who—

Offences relating to investigations.

- (a) threatens, resists, hinders or obstructs or uses foul, abusive or insulting language towards or at an investigator; or
- (b) falsely holds himself out to be an investigator; or
- (c) having been summoned or required in terms of section nine to appear at any proceedings held in terms of that section, fails without lawful excuse to appear at the required place, time and date; or

- (d) having appeared at proceedings held in terms of section nine in answer to a summons or requirement in terms of that section, refuses to be sworn in terms of subsection (3) of that section; or
- (e) without lawful excuse, fails or refuses to answer fully, to the best of his ability, any question put to him by an investigator; or
- (f) without lawful excuse, fails or refuses to produce any book or record when required to do so by an investigator;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(2) Any person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) of section ten, or who takes part in any transaction prohibited by either of those subsections, shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars or imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

PART IV

GENERAL

Prevention of victimization.

14. (1) In this section—

“corrupt practice” includes—

- (a) any contravention of section three or four; or
 - (b) any misappropriation or loss of property caused by theft, fraud or other unlawful means; or
 - (c) any receipt of property in contravention of any law or as a result, whether direct or indirect, of the action of any person who has caused misappropriation or loss such as is referred to in paragraph (b).
- (2) Any person who, without lawful excuse—
- (a) prevents any other person from giving any information, whether in terms of this Act or otherwise, concerning any corrupt practice; or
 - (b) threatens or does any other thing calculated or likely to deter any other person from giving any information, whether in terms of this Act or otherwise, concerning any corrupt practice; or
 - (c) does anything calculated or likely to prejudice any other person because that other person has given any information, whether in terms of this Act or otherwise, concerning any corrupt practice;

shall be guilty of an offence and liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(3) Nothing in this section shall prevent any lawful action being taken against any person who has given false information concerning any corrupt practice or alleged corrupt practice.

15. (1) In this section—

Presumptions
and evidence.

“group of companies” means two or more companies which—

- (a) have the relationship to each other of holding company and subsidiary or wholly owned subsidiary as defined in the Companies Act [Chapter 190]; or
- (b) are substantially controlled by the same person or persons, whether as shareholders, directors or otherwise; or
- (c) carry on any business or activity in partnership or association with each other:

Provided that such companies shall be regarded as members of the same group of companies only in relation to such business or activity.

(2) If it is proved in any prosecution for an offence in terms of section three or four that—

- (a) any agent has solicited, accepted, obtained, agreed to accept or attempted to obtain any gift or consideration for himself or for any other person, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the agent did so in contravention of section three;
- (b) any person has given, agreed to give or offered any gift or consideration—
 - (i) to an agent for himself or any other person; or
 - (ii) to any other person, after agreeing with an agent to do so;

it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the person did so in contravention of section three;

- (c) any agent has used, or any person has given to an agent, a receipt, account or other record in respect of which the agent's principal was interested and which the agent or person, as the case may be, knew or ought to have known was false or erroneous or defective in a material particular, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the agent or person, as the case may be, did so with intent to deceive the agent's principal;
- (d) any agent has failed to disclose to his principal the full nature of any transaction carried out in the course of his agency, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that the agent did so with intent to deceive his principal and to obtain a gift or consideration for himself or for any other person;

- (e) any public officer, in breach of his duty as such, did or omitted to do anything to the favour or prejudice of any person, it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that he did or omitted to do the thing for the purpose of showing favour or disfavour, as the case may be, to that person.

(3) If it is proved in any prosecution for an offence in terms of paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of section fourteen that any person has done anything that is calculated or likely to prejudice another person who has given information concerning a corrupt practice involving the first-mentioned person, that first-mentioned person shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, to have done the thing because that other person gave that information.

(4) If it is proved that a company which is a member of a group of companies—

- (a) has committed an offence in terms of section three; or
 (b) by theft, fraud or other unlawful means, has caused misappropriation or loss of property of the State, a statutory body, a local authority or any other person; or
 (c) has received property from the State, a statutory body, a local authority or any other person, whether directly or indirectly, in contravention of any law or as a result, either direct or indirect, of the action of any person who has caused misappropriation or loss such as is referred to in paragraph (b);

then, in any civil or criminal proceedings brought in respect of such offence, misappropriation, loss or receipt of property—

- (i) it shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved, that every company in the same group of companies was a party to such offence, misappropriation, loss or receipt; and
 (ii) any evidence that would be admissible against any one company in the same group of companies shall be admissible against every other company in the same group of companies.

(5) Nothing in subsection (4) shall be construed as derogating from the provisions of section 357 of the Criminal Procedure and Evidence Act [Chapter 59].

Indemnity.

16. No liability for damages shall attach to the President, the Prime Minister, any other Minister or an investigator in respect of anything done by him, in good faith and without negligence, for the purposes of this Act.

Effect of Act on other laws.

17. The provisions of this Act shall be construed as additional to, and not in substitution for, any other law relating to—

- (a) agents and their principals; or
 (b) the duties of public officers and the consequences of any breach of such duties; or
 (c) the investigation of offences and the examination of persons in connexion with suspected offences.

18. (1) The Minister may make regulations which in his opinion are necessary or convenient for the better carrying out of or giving effect to the provisions of this Act. Regulations.

(2) Regulations made in terms of subsection (1) may provide for—

- (a) the disclosure by persons of the origin, extent and nature of their past and present assets and liabilities;
- (b) the disclosure by public officers and other agents of interest in contracts or proposed contracts or other matters connected with the business or affairs of their principals;
- (c) the better protection from victimization or other prejudice of persons who give information, whether in terms of this Act or otherwise, concerning any corrupt practice or other dishonest or unlawful conduct.

(3) Regulations made in terms of subsection (1) may provide penalties for contraventions thereof, not exceeding a fine of one thousand dollars or imprisonment for a period of one year or both such fine and such imprisonment.

19. (1) The enactments set out in the Schedule are repealed. Repeals and savings.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), anything that was lawfully made, done or commenced in terms of the Emergency Powers (Investigation of State Claims) Regulations, 1984, and which, immediately before the date of commencement of this Act, had or was capable of acquiring legal force or effect shall, on and after that date, continue to have or be capable of acquiring, as the case may be, the same force and effect as if it had been made, done or commenced, as the case may be, in terms of this Act.

SCHEDULE (Section 19)

REPEALED ENACTMENTS

1. The Prevention of Corruption Act [Chapter 70].
2. The Prevention of Corruption Amendment Act, 1983 (No. 28 of 1983).
3. The Emergency Powers (Investigation of State Claims) Regulations, 1984 (S.I. 154A of 1984).
4. The Emergency Powers (Investigation of State Claims (Amendment) Regulations, 1985 (No. 1) (S.I. 268 of 1985).

