Comrades,

Dear officers and soldiers of the air force units,
Teaching staff and cadets from military academies
at different levels,

The efforts you have made are truly remarkable.

By working at a miraculous speed, you have built in a matter of a year this advanced and splendid asset that we see today. I cannot find adequate words to express my gratitude to you, and my happiness.

The traces of your hard-fought struggle to transform the Kangdong area have already disappeared.

However, your staunch revolutionary spirit, outstanding wisdom and strenuous efforts embodied in this facility will, I believe, remain as a model for the coming generations.

Anyone who sees it will remark that something
has been created from nothing.

You have built this large facility as a gift for the people in a place that bears the imprints of your military service and militant feats.

Whereas the challenges and difficulties facing the state are the primary targets for our army to annihilate, achieving the cherished desires of our Party and people is its first goal.

Doing so is our army's invariable and essential nature.

Heroic officers and soldiers of our army,

You have always acted staunchly and boldly to defend the state and the people, and created a legendary and all-powerful reputation in creating the wealth of the country and the happiness of the people.

So, once again, you have been awarded the priceless honour of leading the effort to effect a world of transformation in the coming years, a world to which our ideals and our style of creative struggle will surely lead.

Officers and soldiers,

Let us continue to advance and achieve victory, singing the creators' song under the uplifted banner of defenders.

Availing myself of this opportunity, on behalf of our Party and government I once again extend thanks to our praiseworthy and heroic army.

Thank you.
